Re: PS Chez Sidney, L.L.C. v. United States International Trade Commission and United States Customs Service, Court No. 02-00635

The above-captioned case is currently assigned to Judge Evan J. Wallach and raises the following constitutional issue:

Whether sections 1675c(b)(1)(A) and 1675c(d)(1) of the Continued Dumping and Subsidy Offset Act of 2000, 19 U.S.C. § 1675c, violate a party's First Amendment right to free speech where these sections condition eligibility for offset distribution benefits based on an expression of that party's support for an antidumping petition.

Persons or entities that may have an interest in the case or issue are invited to submit a request to file an amicus brief. The request is to be limited to no more than five (5) pages, stating:

- (1) the party's or entity's potential interest in the issue;
- (2) the party's or entity's expertise on the subject; and
- (3) how such party's or entity's interest or expertise can assist the court in its disposition of the matter.

Submitters will have until May 29, 2003 to submit such requests to:

Leo M. Gordon
Clerk of the Court
United States Court of International Trade
One Federal Plaza

The court will thereafter decide which requestors may file amicus briefs and will establish a schedule for doing so.
